1. Have you ever taken something personally without trying to understand?
2. Has there been a time that you were so focused on being right, that you may have hurt someone?
3. How can you find common ground with others even if they are different than you?
4. We read 1 Corinthians 9: 16-23. How can we meet people where they are at and not break the law of Christ?
5. Have you ever experienced the pain of losing a loved one< or the pain of being hurt by someone?
6. What can you do this week to look beyond someone's issue and seek to understand? This could be the step to bring them to Jesus.

'If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel. For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings. '
