1. What does it mean to be a church online or in person since the pandemic?
2. Will your everyday life go back to normal? What will new normal look like?
3. Since all that has happened in the past year, what has changed for you?
4. As you look at your life following Jesus, what can you do to be the church to those in your community?
5. How can you be the Easter church? Who are you in this?
6. What do you find your identity tied up in?

1 John 3:1-6 the Message Bible

3 What marvelous love the Father has extended to us! Just look at it—we're called children of God! That's who we really are. But that's also why the world doesn't recognize us or take us seriously, because it has no idea who he is or what he's up to. 2-3 But friends, that's exactly who we are: children of God. And that's only the beginning. Who knows how we'll end up! What we know is that when Christ is openly revealed, we'll see him—and in seeing him, become like him. All of us who look forward to his Coming stay ready, with the glistening purity of Jesus' life as a model for our own. 4-6 All who indulge in a sinful life are dangerously lawless, for sin is a major disruption of God's order. Surely you know that Christ showed up in order to get rid of sin. There is no sin in him, and sin is not part of his program. No one who lives deeply in Christ makes a practice of sin. None of those who do practice sin have taken a good look at Christ. They've got him all backward
