'So don't you see that we don't owe this old do-it-yourself life one red cent. There's nothing in it for us, nothing at all. The best thing to do is give it a decent burial and get on with your new life. God's Spirit beckons. There are things to do and places to go! This resurrection life you received from God is not a timid, grave-tending life. It's adventurously expectant, greeting God with a childlike "What's next, Papa?" God's Spirit touches our spirits and confirms who we really are. We know who he is, and we know who we are: Father and children. And we know we are going to get what's coming to us—an unbelievable inheritance! We go through exactly what Christ goes through. If we go through the hard times with him, then we're certainly going to go through the good times with him! This resurrection life you received from God is not a timid, grave-tending life. 1. How do you see God? What's your perception of him?
2. Have you ever thought you knew God but then he surprises you? Share that experience.
3. Have you had a perception of someone to find out you were incorrect?
4. What is it like to be loved by God, by Jesus?
5. How have you identified with your personality in Christ?
6. What is a past perception of someone or of God that you need to let go?
